Dear Lexington county circuit court:

My name is YuDan Lin, the ex-news reporter, Chinese political and religious affairs commentators. Today I contact with you about this remove issues:

Under Counter-claims--Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure permits the When a defendant YuDan Lin may remove an action from South Carolina state circuit court to federal court (United States District Court for the District of South Carolina- Columbia Division). In order to invoke the federal court's diversity jurisdiction, one requirement is that the amount in controversy must exceed $75,000.

Under 1>. The federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) (18 USC §§ 1961-1968) prohibits (1) acquiring, establishing, or operating an enterprise with illegally derived income, (2) acquiring or maintaining an interest in or control of an enterprise through illegal activity, and (3) using an enterprise to commit illegal acts (Extortion, Blackmail, Etc., 31A Am Jur 2d); 2>.

Cyberbullying ; Federal law provides some tools to combat cyberstalking. Under 18 U.S.C. 875(c), it is a federal crime, punishable by up to five years in prison and a fine of up to $250,000, to transmit any communication in interstate or foreign commerce containing a threat to injure the person of another. Section 875(c) applies to any communication actually transmitted in interstate or foreign commerce - thus it includes threats transmitted in interstate or foreign commerce via the telephone, e-mail, beepers, or the Internet. This is the statute under which Jake Baker was charged. 3> South Carolina's Anti-SLAPP statute, Counter-Plaintiff & defendant YuDan Lin counter-claims Plaintiff & counter-defendant Wengui Guo $ 5 million US dollars money damages.
